1. My mimeograph machine is broken, so this is being offset. I hgpe to have the machine fixed by next issue. Because of the greater cost of offset, the issue contains only games.

2. We have openings in:

Youngstown: $3 plas sub. The $3 is refunded if you're eliminated or at the end of the game, but is forfeit if you drop out. Additionally, each time you miss your moves, $1 is removed from the $3 deposit. Fred Hyatt, John Strain, Victor Ricci, Stephen Lee, Glen Taylor, Paul Stevens, Brian Gister.

Junta: $1 plus sub. Not a Diplomacy variant. Postal rules are available from me for a stamped, addressed envelope. Game is available from Creative Wargames Workshop, 330 E 6th, Suite 1E, New York, NY, 10003 for $10. Mark Malamud, Cary Hammer, Ben Grossman. (Seven players are needed).

Machiavelli: We may or may not have one position left in this game---one of the people who told me he wanted to play, Peter Herzig, never gave me his address. If I can't get his address by next issue, there will be one position open. $1 plus sub; send preference list.

3. Conspiracy/Empiricon II will be held over July 4th weekend, 1980. ConSpiracy is a gaming convention, Empiricon is a science fiction convention; the two will be held in conjunction, and the same fee will entitle you to attend all events at both. ConSpiracy will include a Diplomacy tournament, open gaming, lectures and panels by FRP fans and professionals from SPI, OSG, West End, Fantasy Games, and Nimrod; plus an organized FRP campaign. TIME: July 4-6, 1980. SITE: Prince George Hotel, 14 E 28th St, Manhattan. ROOM: $39/single/night; $47/double/night. FEE: $6 until February 1; $7.50 until June 21; $9 at the door; $1 extra for Diplomacy tournament. WRITE TO: EmpiriCon II, POB 682, Church St. Station, New York, NY, 10008. Specify Diplomacy tournament if playing; please tell them that you're attending at least partially for other gaming events

ConSpiracy is organized by the New York Conspiracy.

WANTED, for impersonating a human:

George Gannon, alias "Irish George", alias "Mr. Potatoe Brain", alias "King George the Worst".

Description: UGLY (If my dog had his face, I'd shave its ass and teach it to walk backwards). Known Hideouts: Pontius Pilate Memorial Wash-basin; Judas Iscariot Coin Emporium.

Suspect should be considered dangerous---shoort (or stab) to KILL!

"So while some of them set off hallooing to find one, he and the others propped me against the wall, and then they stood about and discussed what they should do with the dead Chinaman. It was a remarkable conversation, in its way. Someone suggested, sensibly enough, that they should cart him along and give him to the police, but the fair chap, Stuart, said no, they ought to leave him lying and write a letter to the 'Free Press' complaining about litter in the streets. The Arab, whose name was Paitingi Ali, and whose Scotch accent I found unbelievable, was for giving him a Christian burial, of all things, and the hideous little native, Jingo, jabbered excitedly and stamping his feet, apparently wanted to cut off his head and take it home." ---- FLASHMAN'S LADY, George MacDonald Fraser.

I haven't gotten adjudications from John yet; the game will either be delayed, or published in an Udun. Incidentally, I mistakenly listed myself(Greg Costikyan) as GM for this game last issue; John is still GM. I've forwarded the moves from the person who sent me his moves on the basis of that error to John.

MACHIAVELLI

GM: Greg Costikyan

We now have eight players---but I don't have an address for Peter Herzig, one of the eight. I'll try to get his address by next issue---if I can't, I'll try to get another player. At the moment, I have preference lists on file from Marc Arrigo and Alex Polsky; other players are urged to send in preference lists by next issue. Players who fail to submit preference lists will be assigned positions randomly after positions have been assigned to those who do submit preference lists.
